No Late Military Intelligence in Washington—Steele's Reported Surrender Untrue—Sherman Vigorously Pursuing Johnston.

[OFFICIAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 17, 1864—1:05 P. M.

To Maj.-Gen. Dix:

We have no official intelligence of any military operations since my last dispatch. The Richmond papers of Saturday state that Gen. STEELE had surrendered at Camden, with nine thousand men, to PRICE. This is known to be untrue. Gen. STEELE with his whole command, withdrew some two weeks ago from Camden, and is now at Little Rock, having defeated KIRBY SMITH on the way to Sabine River, as heretofore stated.

Gen. SHERMAN was in close pursuit of JOHNSTON, having captured one thousand prisoners and eight pieces of artillery at Resaca.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

REPORTS FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 17—Midnight.

The rebels up to yesterday occupied their line of intrenchments immediately around and this side of Spottsylvania Court-house. Both armies lay on their arms on Sunday night, expecting an attack. The rebel works bear all appearance of having been but recently thrown up. A few hours' sunshine will remove all impediment to the resumption of active hostilities. LEE's position is described as being a very strong one in itself, but it can be flanked without much difficulty. The representations of their being short of provisions and ammunition have been exaggerated.

Our Forces Resting and Recruiting for Another Struggle—An Unsuccessful Movement Against the Trains.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 17.

A dispatch from the Army of the Potomac, dated the 16th inst., says:

After ten days of successive fighting, the Army of the Potomac was allowed to rest and recruit for another struggle.

Some changes in the position of the troops on either side were made during the day, and on the right a slight skirmish occurred between the pickets.

A column of the rebels was seen moving toward our right flank, for the purpose, it is supposed, of attacking our trains, but a portion of the Second Corps was sent out to check them, and the object of the rebels was thus defeated.

It is almost impossible to discover the exact position of the enemy, as they keep in and behind the woods, their pickets only being observable to us.

All the prisoners taken during the late battles have been sent hence. Notwithstanding so large a number were conveyed through a hostile country, not one escaped. This was owing to the strict vigilance of the Sixty-eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers, Col. WINSLOW, who acted as their guard to Belle Plain.

Our wounded, in being transported to the latter place, suffered terribly. Many were necessarily obliged to ride in heavy army wagons, because there was not a sufficient number of ambulances to convey them, and, besides, the roads were exceedingly rough and difficult to pass over.

Fredericksburgh is a general hospital, full of wounded, who are being as well cared for as possible—the Sanitary Commission having succeeded in getting their supplies to that town.

About thirty rebel prisoners were brought in last night.

The officers killed in the Ninety-third New-York Volunteers are Capts. BARNES and BAILEY, and Lieuts. GREY and ELDRIDGE. The wounded are, Capts. BEEKMAN, RANDALLS, NEWTON, FITCH, and Lieuts. Ingram, Corsair, Bushnell, Barnes, Bramhall, Sherwood, Kincaid, Bailey, Grey, Ball, Fitch, and Adjt. Gifford. Total number of killed and wounded in the regiment, 284. Capt. BRAMAN, reported killed, is still on duty. Lieut. MOSHER is a prisoner.

A day or two ago a party of guerrillas, on the road to Belle Plain, seized several ambulances, with wounded, took the horses and wagons and left the passengers on the road. A dozen of the rebels were afterward captured.

FROM GEN. GRANT'S ARMY.

From Our Special Correspondent.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
NEAR SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT-HOUSE,
Friday, May 13—12 M.

I have just returned from the scene of Gen. HANCOCK's brilliant victory of yesterday morning. At the point at which his assault was made, the rebel breastworks formed an angle or salient, and his men advanced silently and, without firing a shot, entered the works at the salient and swept up the inside of the right, making the splendid haul of prisoners already known to you. Unfortunately, the supporting line cheered when nearing the works, otherwise we would, the prisoners say, have captured both EWELL and LEE.

The assault was made between four and five o'clock, in the gray of the morning. BARLOW's division, which had the advance, MILES' brigade leading, went up in column by battalion double on the centre, BIRNEY's division in two lines of battle, and the divisions of GIBBON and MOTT, in the second line, supporting. The storming column rushed over the enemy's breastworks, which were exceedingly strong, with a ditch in front, and drove the enemy back for a mile. Here the enemy rallied, and HANCOCK at six A. M. returned and formed his line of battle in the enemy's works. As this was the key of the whole position our right was gradually refused, and the main body of the army massed on the left. The Sixth Corps (WRIGHT) which had been on the right of the Second withdrew behind their skirmish line and united with HANCOCK's right, and afterward two divisions of WARREN's were brought over. The history of the day after 6 o'clock in the morning, is all summed up in five successive and fierce assaults which LEE made to retake the lost position. At first, EWELL's corps alone confronted HANCOCK, but during the day HILL and LONGSTREET were drawn over from the rebel left, and the whole army of LEE flung itself in five desperate efforts to recapture the breastworks. But it was all in vain, as every assault met a bloody repulse.

So terrific was the death-grapple, however, that at different times of the day the rebel colors were planted on the one side of the works and ours on the other, the men fighting across the parapet. Nothing during the war has equaled the savage desperation of this struggle, which was continued for fourteen hours, and the scene of the conflict, from which I have just come, presents a spectacle of horror that curdles the blood of the boldest. The angle of the works at which HANCOCK entered, and for the possession of which the savage fight of the day was made, is a perfect Golgotha. In this angle of death the dead and wounded rebels lie, this morning, literally in piles—men in the agonies of death groaning beneath the dead bodies of their comrades. On an area of a few acres in rear of their position, lie not less than a thousand rebel corpses, many literally torn to shreds by hundreds of balls, and several with bayonet thrusts through and through their bodies, pierced on the very margins of the parapet, which they were determined to retake or perish in the attempt. The one exclamation of every man who looks on the spectacle is, "God forbid that I should ever gaze upon such a sight again."

HANCOCK's movement is regarded here as the most brilliantly conceived and executed tactical operation of the war, and has added to the splendid fame he won in the three days' fight in the Wilderness. After the turning movement of the morning, the Sixth Corps and two divisions of the Second should be included in the history of the day. They share the honors of the glorious, but bloody field of Spottsylvania. Our loss of yesterday must reach ten thousand.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
NEAR SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT-HOUSE,
Friday, May 13, 6 P. M.

The army has, to-day, been enjoying the repose so absolutely essential after the terrifically exhausting labors of the past eight days' continuous battle. The men are worn down almost to helplessness. The Commanding-General, however does not loose his hold of the rebels. One division from each corps has been out all day engaging the enemy, who holds a position about 500 yards in rear of that held yesterday morning. The reconnoissances, however have only developed a strong skirmish line; and it is fully believed that the main body of the rebels have fallen back a considerable distance. We have in our keeping thirty of the forty-two pieces of artillery yesterday captured. The rest could not be brought away, as they lay between the lines of fire. The rebels, at one o'clock this morning, made another fierce attempt to retake the key position taken by HANCOCK yesterday morning, and their attacks were continued until 4 o'clock this morning. They were all, however, handsomely repulsed. It is a mystery how the rebels are able to keep their front at all, as the testimony of the prisoners is unanimous to the effect that their supplies were completely exhausted last night. We have had a furious rain again this afternoon, and the roads are in a horrible condition.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
Saturday, May 14—6 A. M.

To-day completes a week during which this army has confronted the enemy in his lines of Spottsylvania Court-House. We have fought, manœuvred and massed. We have delivered bloody battles, we have withstood the assaults of a desperate foe, and we have driven him from powerful and elaborately prepared positions; but he still confronts us. Vital still in all his parts, he will not, save with annihilation die.

The reconnoissances of yesterday shows that the rebels are still in strong force in a new position, somewhat in rear and to the east of that out of which they were forced in the battle of Thursday. Dispositions were last evening made for a manœuvre this morning, laiming to drive them out. During the night the Fifth Corps (WARREN) was moved over to the extreme left, connecting with the Sixth, (WRIGHT,) on the right; this with the Ninth, (BURNSIDE,) and the Ninth with the Second, (HANCOCK,) which holds the extreme right. The attack was to have been made at 5 o'clock this morning by the Fifth and Sixth Corps, with the view of turning the enemy's right by an oblique movement of our left, which would compel the enemy to evacuate his lines; but the horrible mud prevents the movements of the artillery, and up to this hour holds the army in embargo.

MAY 14, NOON.—Headquarters have been moved to the left, to conform with the new position of our line taken up this morning. We are now at the Gale House, on the direct road from Fredericksburgh to Spottsylvania Court-house—eight miles from the former and one and a half miles from the latter. Our advanced line is within half a mile of the Court-house. This morning, when our advance struck this place, it found it held as an outpost by a body of the enemy's cavalry, about 200 in number. One of our regiments drove the rebel horsemen back to the woods, where they dismounted and charged to retake the position; but a volley sent them back at the double quick. From the top of the house where headquarters now are, we can see the Court-house and a portion of the enemy's works, and both armies are in sight of each other fortifying. The country is more open where we now are. The Wilderness here begins to shade and soften off. It is at present doubtful whether we shall have a fight to-day.

W. SWINTON.

THE LATEST.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
NEAR SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT-HOUSE,
Saturday, May 14—6 P. M.

Since the movement to the left this morning some skirmishing has taken place in the front of WARREN (Second) and WRIGHT, (Sixth,) and there has been considerable artillery practice, but the engagement has not yet become general. The horrible condition of the roads has prevented as rapid a concentration on the left as would otherwise have been made, or we would doubtless have occupied Spottsylvania Court-house to-day.

The Kohnstamm Case—A Trial Proceed—Frauds on the Government.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Before Judge Nelson.

The court-room was crowded this morning, as it was understood that the District-Attorney would move on the trial of Solomon Kohnstamm for frauds on the Government. The panel of petit jurors was called over, and such of them as had excuses to make were heard.

The District-Attorney, Mr. Smith, then rose and said to the court that he was ready to proceed with the trial of Mr. Kohnstamm and therefore moved it.

Judge Beebe, in behalf of Kohnstamm, said to the court that the defence had to apply to the court for a short delay, although they were very desirous to have the case disposed of at the present term; that Mr. Evarts, who was Mr. Kohnstamm's principal counsel, had some time since gone to Europe on business for the Government, and had not yet returned, though it was not expected that he would have been delayed so long; that information had been received that he left England to come home on the 7th of this month, and would be due here accordingly on to-morrow or next day; that while the defence had made every exertion to be ready, there was some testimony which they had not been able to procure, but they were inclined to go to trial without further delay; they only asked of the court to give them a day or two, that they might consult Mr. Evarts as to the advisability of proceeding without making such an application, and as soon as they could do that they would be ready to proceed with the cause on such day as the court should name, or to move the cause off for the term for cause.

The District-Attorney said that the indictment was found in June last, and the case had been postponed several times at the request of the defendant; that the Government had gone to great expense to get ready for the trial; that one witness was here from Hilton Head and another from the army, whose services could with difficulty be dispensed with; and that as Mr. Brady, Mr. Choate and Mr. Marbury were counsel for the defence, as well as Mr. Evarts, he did not think that Mr. Evarts' absence was cause for postponing the trial.

Mr. Brady said that Mr. Choate was not counsel in the case, and Mr. Marbury's connection with it ceased some time since. He repeated what Judge Beebe had said as to the reasons for giving the delay, and said that he had no doubt that as soon as they could have an hour's talk with Mr. Evarts they would be ready to proceed with the trial of the cause.

Judge Nelson said: The indictment is a simple one, and the offence not an uncommon one. I have tried a great many of them. There is nothing in this offence that requires great deliberation. The case has been magnified somewhat, no doubt, but procuring money on false vouchers is a common offence. If it is a case that might be tried in a session, and probably would be in a lower court. I think the counsel present are quite equal to the trial of the case.

Judge Beebe—Will the court take a suggestion?

The Court—The matter is decided. I have heard you patiently on the matter. Don't let us have any cavil about it.

Judge Beebe—Will your Honor then fix a day for the trial?

The Court—Yes. This morning—this moment.

Judge Beebe—We are not prepared to try the cause this morning.

The Court—I can't help it. The court is not going to trifle with these cases. If the District Attorney is ready, he is entitled to try the cause. Impannel a jury.

A jury was accordingly impanneled—the defence exhausting their peremptory challenges before it was obtained—and the court then took a recess for five minutes.

At the close of the recess Judge Beebe applied to the court to direct the witnesses, except the one on the stand, to leave the room.

The Judge declined to make the order, saying that such had been the practice sometimes in capital cases, but never in cases of felony, and he did not intend to establish a precedent.

The case was then opened for the prosecution by Mr. Sedgwick, who stated to the jury that they should prove the presentment to the United States disbursing officers a bill purporting to be a bill for $1,366, alleged to be due to one Lewis Pfeffer, for lodging and rations furnished to Capt. Steinell's company of the Fifty-eighth Regiment New-York State Volunteers. He described Kohnstamm's dealings with the office, alleging that he took means to corrupt them, and that he succeeded to an enormous extent. That Capt. Larned, who was disbursing officer at the time, had been so overpowered with the shame and disgrace which was to come upon him when the frauds were discovered, that as they believed, he went off the rocks at Nahant, having, however, left documents which, if they were allowed to read them to the jury, would convince them of the guilt of the accused. The prosecution then called as a witness,

Lewis Carr, who testified: I was, in the Fall of 1862, principal clerk in the United States Mustering and Disbursing Office in White-street; Col. Sackett was the disbursing officer; he was succeeded by Lieut.-Col. Nichols, who is here; Col. Nichols was relieved in May, 1862, and Capt. Larned was appointed, and continued to perform the office till August, 1862, when Lieut.-Col. Reeve was appointed to succeed him; he continued till about Oct. 20, 1863, when he was relieved by Gen. Canby; the building was first occupied for a warehouse; on the second floor were the recruits, and on the third the disbursing office; the building was leased by Col. Sackett of Kohnstamm; I knew him; he was there daily almost.

The court here, under the objection of the defendant's counsel, refused to allow the prosecution to give evidence of his dealings with the office before Capt. Larned took charge of it, it being under his administration that this bill was presented.

Witness proceeded to say that Kohnstamm repeatedly presented bills while Capt. Larned had charge of the office, which, after being examined, were paid. The bills paid him during that time amounted to about $100,000. Witness looked at a book containing stamps of checks, and said that there were on that day a check drawn to the order of G. Kohnstamm for $9,173 89, which was for the amount of eighteen different bills. One of the amounts was $1,366, for Pfeffer's bill for subsistence and lodging to Capt. Steinell's company of the Fifty-eighth Regiment, Col. Kryzanowski was Colonel. Witness was shown the bill and identified it, and said that these special contractors were those who furnished lodgings and rations for recruits before the companies were full; that as the State did not pay till the company was full, and as the United States did not furnish rations till the men were mustered in, the officers had to get their men subsisted and lodged wherever they could get men to trust them; that the officer certified to the correctness of the bills; that the money for this bill was paid to Kohnstamm on the order of the special contractor, Pfeffer. It was paid by check on the Assistant Treasurer. The bill charges for subsistence from Aug. 15, 1861 to Nov. 6, 1861; I can't tell when it was presented at the office; I never knew of its being presented till Kohnstamm presented it; Capt. Larned signed the check; I don't know where he is; I don't know what became of him, except that he disappeared from New-York; he was in bad health, and left here for Nahant.

Witness was shown the papers and testified that they appeared to be in Larned's writing and signed by him.

Mr. Pierrepont then asked the witness if he had understood that Larned was dead.

Mr. Brady objected to proving rumors of this kind. He said he had read obituary notices recently of three of his friends who were yet alive. If Larned was dead they could prove the fact, but rumors were not evidence.

Judge Pierrepont said that Larned was not dead, but they desired to prove that it was at the time understood that he was.

The Judge excluded the evidence.

The question was here raised by the defence whether evidence should be allowed of other fraudulent claims presented by the accused, which was discussed at some length by Mr. Brady.

Judge Nelson said he was not going to try any case but this one on this bill; that it was not claimed, as he understood, that the bill was forged; but that it was a false bill, and it was necessary to show—first, that the bill was presented; second, that it was false; and third, that the accused knew it. That the proper way for the prosecution was to make out these facts, and he thought that at this stage of the case the evidence about other matters should be excluded.

The witness identified the check given to Kohnstamm on July 1, 1862.

Being cross-examined, he said he had no personal knowledge that Kohnstamm presented the bill in question, but his first knowledge of it was when he found it in the office; that he did not know Pfeffer and knew nothing of the genuineness of the order for the payment of the bill to Kohnstamm; that he did not recollect whether he handed the check to Kohnstamm; the order of business was for him to fill up the checks and hand them to Capt. Larned, who signed them, and either handed them to the party who was to have them, or sent them by an orderly.

Redirect—A memorandum that I made at the time reminds me that I did not personally examine these eighteen bills for which the check was drawn, but that Capt. Larned directed me to make out the check.

John Kennedy called—I was book-keeper at the disbursing office with Capt. Larned; I was not there when this bill of Pfeffer's was paid; I went into the office Aug. 7, and this bill was paid Aug. 1; I entered the bill in the books, and the cash balanced.

Edward Steinell was called, but not understanding English, one of the jury was sworn as interpreter.

He testified that he was Captain of Company F, in the Fifty-sixth Regiment; knows Pfeffer who is in court; he was shown the bill and asked if the two signatures purporting to be his were his; he said he could not tell whether they were or not; the letter R did not look like his; none of the body of the bill was in his writing; Lewis Pfeffer lived in Albany; I placed recruits to board at Pfeffer's house; it was near the steamboat landing in Albany; Pfeffer did not board any recruits for me in New-York; he boarded the entire company in Albany, and others, about 116 in all; never made any other arrangement with him except that he was to be paid by the Government; he never made a claim on me for board, but sent an account to me at Winchester, Va.; I have not the bill; it was enclosed in a letter, with a request to get it signed by the Colonel; I have lost the bill; I was sick at the hospital; I did not sign it; I sent it to camp to be signed by the Colonel; he did not sign it, and it was returned to me, and I lost it; the amount was about $99; less than $100; that was all that was owing as far as I knew, but I did not know certainly as it was a debt owed by the Government; I know Kohnstamm; I have spoken to him about the bill for boarding; it was at his office in June, 1862; he and I and a man named Scheuerman were together on one occasion, but it was after the first part of this bill was paid; the conversation then was that I was to come back in a fortnight and get $400; when I came back Scheuerman was there; Kohnstamm said he had paid the bill and he could not pay any more; Scheuerman said the bill must be made higher, the United States made enough out of them; I signed blanks; all Kohnstamm said was that the bills were settled and he would not pay any more; I told Kohnstamm not to collect this money, that we would pay him what he had paid and collect it ourselves; I told Kohnstamm I was a poor man and the raising of this company had cost me $300; Kohnstamm said he was a poor man and he paid me $50; I have heard that Scheuerman is dead; he was always in Kohnstamm's office; Scheuerman came to see me after I came back from the war; I met Kohnstamm at his office; I also met Pfeffer; never met them together; Kohnstamm had a talk with me about a bill; I claimed the $200 that had been promised me by Scheuerman; he said that Scheuerman was always playing him such tricks; blanks were brought me to sign by Scheuerman; Kohnstamm did not give me any money to sign blanks; I never gave Kohnstamm authority to sign my name; he never told me that Scheuerman was his agent; I can't say that he was so, but it looked like it; I brought Pfeffer to New-York; I don't know whether he sold his claim to any one; Kohnstamm did not give me back the bill when I said I would pay him and take it; he gave me about $50, and I was satisfied; I did not know that he collected $1,366; never signed a bill filled up for Pfeffer; I signed blanks, I know Col. Alcott; he showed me, in his office, Pfeffer's bills; I had not seen them before since I signed them.

Cross-examined—Pfeffer boarded in all 116 men; I don't know that they were there nine or ten days; during two months there were men there about nine or ten days.

Redirect—Sometimes the men stayed there two or three days; they would not be sent to New-York till there were 18 or 20 of them.

TUESDAY, May 17—P. M.

Early to-day the disposition was apparently strong among the speculators in Gold to rapidly advance the price, on the suspense in the movements of the main army of Gen. Grant in Virginia. They were assisted by the financial news from London of the further advance in the rate of Money at the Bank of England to 9 ℔ cent. As much as 178@178½ ℔ cent. was made before the First Board, and 178@177¾ ℔ cent. at the Board. But later in the day the quotation fell to 177@177½ ℔ cent., and Bills on London even lower on the Currency rates. The Gold rate 109¾ ℔ cent. The very latest English news, while advising 6 ℔ cent. interest, also quotes a firm and advancing market for Breadstuffs and Provisions, because of the rather warlike appearance of political affairs. This news, together with the rise in Gold, had a very favorable effect on Breadstuff trade at the Produce Exchange, where liberal sales of Flour, Wheat and Corn were made at advanced prices.

The Stock Exchange opened with renewed firmness in prices, and a fair amount of business was done at the First Board at about yesterday's advance on the Railways. Toward the close of the first call of the list, however, there was a partial yielding among cash sellers, and the market was less buoyant. The Miscellaneous Shares followed the course of the Railways. The Government Securities were again in request, and $300,000 taken at the First Board, and $55,000 at the Second, at firm rates; 5-20s at 107@107⅛, Certificates 98¼.

At the Second Board there was some falling off in Erie and Central, but renewed firmness on Hudson River among the New-York Roads. The Western Roads generally steady. Cumberland Coal better than at the first Board. There was nothing registered on the Harlem "corner" to-day. Yesterday the price was 280 ℔ cent., at which 2,000 Shares were bought in, it is reported, to fulfill a matured contract at 140 ℔ cent.

After the adjournment of the Second Board and at 4 o'clock on the Street the following bids were made in comparison with the same hour on Monday. The general market left off steady. Hudson River advanced to 153¼ ℔ cent., Toledo to 150¾ and Galena to 133 ℔ cent.:

The price for Money to the Stock firms is 6 ℔ cent., and the supply very easy. The Associated Banks receive 6 months' interest on their 5 ℔ cent. Legal Tenders on the 1st prox., when the notes can be used as ordinary currency, and will be, no doubt, as far as there is a demand for Money above this rate. It is doubtful, however, whether the large balances now accumulating in New-York can be used to better advantage than holding the U. S. Notes on the 5 ℔ cent. interest which they will continue to bear.

Barley Malt is quiet at $1 55@$1 60 ℔ bushel; sales, 8,500 bushels. The movements in Breadstuffs, during the past fortnight, Mr. Edward Bill notices thus: "There has been a general quietness in all branches of the trade for the past fortnight, and particularly during the last week, owing to the momentous struggle going on at the seat of war, and business in all descriptions of produce has been greatly checked. The supplies of Flour have increased, and with lower rates for gold and little or no disposition to operate for speculation or shipment, the market has been dull, and prices unsettled and lower. In view of the moderate quantity expected this Spring of Western Extra and Family brands, holders are more firm on those descriptions, the greatest reduction being on the shipping grades, Western and Extra State. At yesterday's Exchange, there was an improved feeling, and an advance of 10c. ℔ bbl. From the Erie Canal (via Oswego with two or three boatloads from Buffalo,) we have had arrivals of Wheat to some extent, but the main supplies will be detained a week or more, owing to a break in the Canal. Any considerable of that at hand has been shipped on owner's account or stored, leaving but a moderate amount for sale, the market, yesterday, with more favorable English advices, closed at two or three cents advance. Rye is scarce at quotations. Indian Corn is firmer and the supply light. The Export Clearances from this port for the fortnight foot up to Great Britain and Ireland, 13,379 bbls. Flour, 119,655 bus. Wheat; to Continental Ports 310 bbls. Flour; to Mexico 1,480 bbls. Flour; to Brazil, 2,937 bbls. Flour; to all other ports, 59,267 bbls. Flour, 8,188 bbls. Corn Meal, 7,363 bus Wheat, 12,366 bus. NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.

A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS,
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING,
J. L. & J. O. WEST, NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW-YORK,
Are the owners of the patent and exclusive manufacturers of this,
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness, to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to hoop skirts, viz.: the annoyance to the wearer, as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this City and throughout the different States.

UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION,
No. 823 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, May 16, 1864.
THE FOLLOWING COPY OF A LETTER from Gen. ASBOTH to the Agent of the United States Sanitary Commission at New-Orleans, in regard to the very destitute condition of the wives and children of the Union men of Florida, speaks for itself. As such disposition of its funds, the providence of the Commission, special contributions for the relief of these women and children whose husbands and fathers are in the Union army, will be received at the office of the Commission, and dispensed by the agent at Pensacola. Clothing, such as dresses for women and children, under-clothing, &c., should be marked, "For Florida Unionists," and be sent to the supply depot of the Commission, at No. 10 Cooper Union, New-York:
HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF PENSACOLA,
BARRANCAS, 24th April, 1864.
SIR: I beg to state that there are at this place over six hundred, and at East Pass near two hundred destitute women and children, entirely dependent on the United States Government for support. To prevent starvation, I have, in accordance with War Department General Order No. 30, current series, directed the Commissary of Subsistence to issue rations to them, and sheltered them with condemned tents, but the limited means at my disposal are inadequate for the daily increasing number, and an application to Department Headquarters for medical assistance having been disapproved, much additional suffering must ensue during the coming sickly season among these unfortunate victims of the rebellion, unless immediate steps are taken in their behalf.
I would therefore request, in the name of humanity, that an assistant agent of the United States Sanitary Commission be sent here to assist in providing for their urgent wants.
I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
ASBOTH, Brig.-Gen.
Dr. BLAKE, Agent United States Sanitary Commission, New-Orleans.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The news of the situation in Virginia does not disclose any remarkably new features. Gen. GRANT has been receiving and disposing of large reinforcements, and on Friday evening last there seems to have been a very material change in the position of the two armies. LEE'S present position is represented as being a very strong one, and the fortifications of recent construction. The roads have been so bad as to preclude any movement by the flank, which had been contemplated.

From Gen. BUTLER there is nothing later than the dispatches of yesterday, which left him in possession of the first line of the enemy's works in front of Fort Darling.

The news from Gen. SHERMAN continues to be good. The fruits of the battle at Resaca are 8 guns and 1,200 prisoners, with JOHNSTON retreating southwardly toward Kingston and Atlanta, with our army in vigorous pursuit. Kingston is 35 miles from Resaca, and Atlanta is 59 miles from Kingston.

By the arrival of the steamship Fulton at this port, we have news from the Department of the South to May 14. The steam tug Harriet A. Weed, on Monday, the 9th inst., in the St. John's River, ran upon two torpedoes, which exploded simultaneously, and completely destroyed the vessel. The assistant engineer and four men were killed. This is the third vessel which has been destroyed by torpedoes in the St. John's River. On the day of the disaster the river was dragged and nine torpedoes were picked up. When the Fulton passed Charleston bar a heavy engagement was going on between Admiral DAHLGREN'S monitors, including the New Ironsides, and the rebel batteries in Charleston harbor. Fort Putnam was also engaged in bombarding Sumter. The firing was as heavy, and the engagement appeared to be as severe, as any that has occurred in Charleston harbor.

Advices from Natchez to the 5th inst. state that there has been no more fighting of consequence near Alexandria. A rebel battery at Fort De Russey fired into the steamer Emma, sunk her, and used up one or two other transports. A gang of forty guerrillas appeared, on the 4th inst., within seven miles of Natchez, but the fortifications are so perfect that no danger is apprehended. A party of QUANTRELL'S men have been committing depredations upon the plantations in Louisiana, between Vicksburgh and Natchez. Opposite DAVIS' plantation they made an attack, but were repulsed by the negroes. They afterward returned and massacred Prof. WINCHELL and thirty of his negroes. They afterward visited the plantations of the Eastern amateur planters, Messrs. KNOX and COLBURN, at Waterproof, carried off all their mules and negroes and everything of value, and threatened to hang Mr. KNOX.

Advices from Decatur, Ala., to 7th inst., state that the rebels attacked our picket line on that morning, and made a desperate effort to break it; but were bravely met by our forces, the Seventeenth New-York particularly distinguishing themselves. After several hours' hard fighting, the rebels were driven back in great confusion, and, though expected to attack again, did not.

Vicksburgh advices of the 10th inst., say that the expedition under Gen. MCARTHUR had captured Yazoo City, with but little resistance on the part of the rebels. A messenger en route to Gen. KIRBY SMITH'S army was captured, with copies of the dispatches sent by Gen. LEE to Adjt.-Gen. COOPER. The dispatches stated that GRANT'S army had been repulsed and driven toward Washington.

GENERAL NEWS.

Comptroller BRENNAN yesterday opened proposals from forty-five different individuals and firms, embodying eighty-six bids for a new issue of "Central Park Improvement Fund stock," to bear 6 per cent. interest, and to be payable in 1876. The sum to be issued is $300,000. The bids for it aggregated $1,702,300. The stock was awarded to 15 individuals and firms, 22 bids being accepted, at premium rates of from four to ten per cent. $50,000 was awarded at five, and $35,000 at six per cent. premium. Only one par bid was made. The rejected premium bids were chiefly at three per cent. and above. The bidding, it will be observed, ran up to unprecedented high rates, and shows the value of City stocks. The bidder who secured $50,000 worth of the stock at 5 ℔ cent. premium was present at the opening, and deemed himself fortunate, although $16,000 was awarded at 4 ℔ cent. There were so many offers at this rate that, after accepting all the higher bids, the balance to be accepted necessary to make up $300,000 was apportioned to them, according to the amount of the bids. One party bid for $50,000 at 4 ℔ cent., and got but $16,700, and another, who bid for $25,000 at the same rate, got only $7,500.

Most of the City railroad companies have compromised with the car drivers, and the strike, which for several days past has seriously interfered with City travel, is nearly ended. Monday night most of the down town cars, on the west side of the City, were compelled to stop running; but yesterday all the roads, except the Sixth-avenue and the Seventh-avenue, were in full operation. The Sixth-avenue Company still refuses to compromise with the drivers. A police force is employed to guard the Sixth and Seventh-avenue cars and depots.

The gallant Seventy-ninth, which has been in active service almost from the commencement of the war, will arrive in New-York at an early hour to-day, and will be escorted through the City by the Sixty-ninth Regiment.

JOHN H. GOULD, Esq., Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Metropolitan Fair, has deposited one million for the benefit of the United States Sanitary Commission. He states that the financial affairs cannot be closed for some time, but estimates that the receipts over and above all expenses will reach $1,100,000.

The British and Irish Magnetic Telegraph Company (limited) have stationed a steamer at Cape Clear to intercept the American mail steamers, and thus expedite the transmission of messages from that point. Arrangements have also been made for reporting vessels passing Cape Clear for owners and consignees, and for placing orders on board.

The inquest on the body of GEORGE W. DURYEE, the policeman of the Nineteenth Precinct, who was shot in the head and instantly killed on Monday night, was not held yesterday, owing to the impossibility of securing the attendance of all the necessary witnesses. The investigation will be commenced this morning at the Nineteenth Precinct Station-house, by Coroner NAUMANN.

The trial of SOLOMON KOHNSTAMM, for alleged frauds upon the Government, was begun yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge NELSON. A report of yesterday's proceedings will be found in our law columns.

The Washington Chronicle states that Rev. Dr. HAWKS has temporarily left Baltimore, because, as is supposed, he was invited to give an account of his stewardship to the military authorities.

The draft in the Second District, Williamsburgh, will take place to-morrow. Only one hundred and fifty names are to be drawn.

The obsequies of Brig.-Gen. HAYS took place at Pittsburgh on Saturday last.

The Live Stock markets are supplied this week with 34,865 animals of all kinds, numbering 4,969 beeves, 129 cows, 1,203 calves, 5,687 sheep, 12,877 swine. The market has been quite firm, with a general advance in prices. At the opening on Monday the supply of bullocks was light, and butchers who were anxious to replenish their stalls readily paid the ½c. advance demanded by sellers. Prices have ruled higher than at any other time in New-York markets. Cattle continued to arrive in considerable numbers during Monday, but the market remained firm. A few head were left over until Tuesday, when fresh droves, that had been detained on the road, arrived, about three hundred in all, and the active demand at the opening of the market was quite well supplied. There were but few buyers present on Tuesday, and the market showed very little activity. Prices continued nearly the same, though the light request may have caused a slight decline. The whole number of cattle received at the different markets counts up at the close more than 1,000 head over last week. Had the comparatively large supply of this week been on sale at the opening of the market, prices would probably have been no higher if as high as last week. Sales of the best steers were reported at 18c. ℔ lb., estimated net weight—actual weight will doubtless prove that higher figures have been paid. Fair to good cattle sold at 15c.@17c.... Sheep were in limited supply. Prices have advanced from ½c.@1c. ℔ lb. The best wool sheep are reported at 12c., live weight; fair at 10c.; shorn at 7c.@8½c.... Hogs are firm and receipts heavy. Prices have advanced from ½c.@¾c. ℔ lb. Prime corn-fed rate 8½c.@8¾c., live weight; still-fed at 8½c.@8½c.

Cotton and Breadstuffs were in good request yesterday, in part for export, at advanced prices. Provisions were less active; Pork was cheaper, and Lard dearer. Whisky was quiet and depressed. Groceries were lightly dealt in. Tallow and Petroleum were freely purchased. The freight market was rather quiet, owing, in part, to the high claims of shipowners.

The Stock Market was again firm yesterday, on a fair amount of business. Gold opened 2@2½ ℔ cent. higher than on Monday, but fell back 1@1½ ℔ cent. Money easy at 6 ℔ cent.

False Issues and a Fanatical Spirit.

Slavery died by over-doing itself. Anti-Slavery, if left to some of its friends, would perish in the same manner. Slavery was not content with its own sure constitutional ground, but crusaded on needless and false issues. It bludgeoned free parliamentary debate, it struck away the Missouri Compromise line, it sought to drive freedom from every Territory, it raised the flag of rebellion against the Government. It not only made war upon its enemies, but set up a procrustean bed for its friends, and smote without mercy every one of them who did not touch its extremest mark. There is a set of Anti-Slavery men who exhibit too much of this same spirit, and are doing quite as much in their way to hurt the cause they mean to support. They are not content to let alone the causes that are fast securing the entire abolition of Slavery, but insist upon clogging them with other questions which have no legitimate connection with them. Thus, a while ago, it was undertaken to identify the abolition of Slavery with the abolition of the States containing it. Now the effort is to carry universal black suffrage with emancipation, and to make the adoption of that an absolute test of Anti-Slavery principle.

We have seen this purpose displayed in the protracted controversy between the Senate and the House on the bill organizing the Territory of Montana. Though no negroes ever have settled, or ever will settle, in that region, yet the crusaders forced an issue whether, supposing they were there, they should be allowed to vote. Upon that empty abstraction they wasted days of the most important period of this session. Now the question is again raised on the point of giving the franchise to all the black men of the District of Columbia. Not only is this urged, but it is declared that all who object to it are not true Anti-Slavery men—that they are still under a malign Pro-Slavery bias. Mr. SUMNER stigmatized these objections as evidence that "Slavery dies hard in this chamber," and charged upon Senators who were opposed to an extension of the franchise a "vindication of Slavery in one of its meanest productions."

The absurdity of this, of course, is manifest to every man of the least reflection. The question whether the slave shall be given his natural freedom has no connection with the other question whether he shall be allowed power at the ballot-box. The true Republican doctrine is that freedom is the natural right of all men, but that intelligence ought to accompany the exercise of every civil franchise. From the beginning, popular education has been considered the indispensable basis of our institutions—the one thing absolutely essential to their security. It is certain that the emancipated slaves have no such education; that they are deficient in its simplest rudiments. The worst of all the crimes of Slavery is that it entails the densest ignorance upon its victims. Its blackest iniquity would turn white the very instant it could be made to appear that it fitted men not to be brutes at the crib, but to be sovereigns at the ballot-box. Yet this is so, if it be indeed true that these slaves just emancipated are fit to have the elective franchise which Mr. SUMNER insists they shall receive. This is the more extraordinary as Mr. SUMNER represents a State which precludes all white men from the suffrage who cannot read and write. If Massachusetts deems education an indispensable qualification for white voters, Mr. SUMNER is the last man who should be so intolerant toward those who would withhold the vote from ignorant black men.

The untimely and unseemly zeal with which this is urged, is only calculated to excite dissatisfaction with emancipation. Nothing is surer to produce reaction against a cause than an attempt to carry it beyond its proper scope. We are free to confess that the future civil status of the liberated slave is a very grave question. But this is not the time to canvass it, nor is Congress the place to decide it. Its wise decision must depend very much upon the circumstances under which the rebellion comes to its end, and these circumstances cannot yet be foreseen. The "logic of events," far more than the counsels of men, have shaped the present situation of the country, and so it will continue to do until civil war ceases, and all the normal operations of government are resumed. Emancipation was a military question, and was settled in war and by war. The black franchise on the other hand, is a civil question, and peace is the right time to settle it.

Again it is a question for the States and not for Congress to settle. The Constitution gives Congress no power to prescribe the qualification of voters in the States. Those qualifications are invariably established by the State constitutions. Every State has unrestricted power in that respect. It always has been exercised in a variety of ways, and, it is likely, always will be. Massachusetts now permits all its black men to vote; New-York permits a certain portion; Pennsylvania permits none. Congress has no power whatever to prevent these differences. It may talk upon the matter as it talks upon everything else, but no practical result can follow. It will be better for Congress at all times, to confine itself to its own constitutional business, and leave this subject where only it belongs. If Congress cannot so restrain itself, it at least should let the subject alone until after the war. Our present business is to put down the rebellion, and our supreme concern should be to preserve the complete harmony and coöperation of all loyal men, without which the loyal cause must languish and fail. Nothing can so tend to destroy that harmony as an attempt to foist illegitimate and untimely issues upon the Union party; especially if this attempt be coupled with such bitterness of speech and intolerance of spirit as have been just displayed in the Senate. But we believe that the Union party is made of stuff that will be proof against all such pernicious work. We believe that it will faithfully adhere to its own true ground—that it will "fight it out on the line" on which it first set out, and that November will bring its crowning triumph.

THE WOUNDED.—On the eve of the great battle of the Wilderness, we drew attention to the possible wants of those who were sure to be wounded in the struggle. The fears then expressed, that the casualties (from the vast magnitude of the conflict) would be found to be unprecedented, have been realized. The Sanitary Commission, which has done, and is now doing its utmost as an auxiliary of the Medical Department—having 150 active agents administering relief in the various camps and buildings where the wounded are lying—makes a statement to the public, which, we feel assured, will meet a prompt and practical response. The latest report of the Commission says: "The number of wounded is so large that even the ample resources of the Commission will not be sufficient to meet the continued demand." To this bare announcement it is unnecessary to add a word to a generous public.

GENTEEL PRISONERS OF WAR.—In a Lynchburgh newspaper we find the Union prisoners recently captured and sent to that place, described as "a decidedly genteel set of Yankees, who conducted themselves with more propriety than usual." It is some satisfaction to know that gentility finds an exponent in a community which openly boasts of the cold-blooded massacre of the captured garrison of Fort Pillow. A critical taste in matters of social propriety ought, probably, to pass for high breeding, even in a select circle of cut-throats. There is nothing like style.

A CERTIFICATE OF CHARACTER.—It must have been consoling to the famous firm of LAIRD, in Liverpool, to learn from the Foreign Secretary's speech in the House of Lords, that they are not to be believed when they give evidence, no matter how loudly they protest. Earl RUSSELL says they are not so innocent of illegal transactions of the sort now charged to them, as to be credible witnesses, and accepting their testimony as truthful, would have been to open the road direct to war with the United States. Quoting textually, his most emphatic words are: "They (the LAIRDS) have done everything in their power by fitting out ships, by engaging in contracts for supplying vessels of war to the other belligerent, to give the United States a just cause of war against this country."

SIGNIFICANT.—The statement is pregnant that of the vast body of rebel prisoners—some 8,000—captured in the late battles, not one made his escape in the long journey toward the rear, through districts of more than doubtful loyalty, and affording abundant means of escape and concealment. The fact is unprecedented in the history of the war, and can barely be accounted for on the ground of the preëminent vigilance of the guard placed over the captives.

"THERE'S A MAN IN IT!"—The confidence reposed in Lieut.-Gen. GRANT by President LINCOLN, and the cordiality which exists between these distinguished men, were happily illustrated by a characteristic anecdote related recently by the President in the course of a familiar conversation with a personal friend. In reply to a question in regard to the present military prospect, Mr. LINCOLN, with that peculiar smile which he always puts on when about to tell a good story, said: "Well, sir, your question reminds me of a little anecdote about the automaton chess-player, which many years ago astonished the world by its skill in that game. After a while the automaton was challenged by a celebrated player, who, to his great chagrin, was beaten twice by the machine. At the end of the second game, the player, significantly pointing his finger at the automaton, exclaimed in a very decided tone, 'There's a man in it!' And this, sir, is just the secret of our present success."

GEN. WADSWORTH'S BODY.

Particulars of the Finding of the Remains—Removal of 1,200 of our Wounded from the Rebel Lines to Fredericksburgh.

Surgeon W. J. MCDERMOTT, of the Sixty-sixth Regiment New-York Volunteers, who arrived in this City yesterday from Fredericksburgh, gives some interesting particulars concerning the recovery of Gen. WADSWORTH'S body, and the removal of a large number of our wounded from the rebel lines, after the first great battle in the Wilderness. He states that pursuant to an order issued by Gen. HANCOCK before the fight, several Surgeons were detailed to remain with the wounded, in the event of its becoming necessary to leave them behind. After the fight, and on the morning of the eighth instant, this order was compiled with, in consequence of Gen. GRANT'S ordering Gen. HANCOCK to move his division to the left. This manœuvre resulted in twelve hundred of our wounded being left in an improvised hospital in the Wilderness, at the Stephen's House, near the plank road running from Fredericksburgh, and within the enemy's lines. On the 9th instant, a portion of Gens. ROSSES and GORDON'S rebel cavalry under command of Capt. BORDEN, First Regiment North Carolina, took possession of twelve hundred of our wounded at this hospital, besides a large number of their own, which had fallen into our hands after the first day's battle. The rebels, immediately after taking possession of the hospital, removed six ambulances filled with their wounded to their hospital near LONGSTREET'S headquarters. Dr. BROCK, of Richmond, superintended the removal of the rebel wounded, and extended such courtesies to our surgeons as the circumstances would allow. Surgeons GEORGE L. POTTER, One Hundred and forty-fifth Pennsylvania; —— KILBY, Sixty-fourth New York; W. J. MCDERMOTT, Sixty-sixth New-York and W. O'MAHER, Sixty-ninth New-York, were immediately paroled. Capt. CAMPBELL and Lieut. SAVAGE, One Hundred and eighty-third Pennsylvania, were also released on parole. On the 12th inst., while our paroled officers were still within the enemy's lines a flag of truce, accompanied by wagons for our wounded, under command of Capt. WRIGHT, of the Fifty-seventh New-York, acting Provost-Marshal of Fredericksburgh arrived at the hospital. An interview was had between Capt. WRIGHT and the rebel Capt. BORDEN, who consented to the removal of our wounded. In the conversation between these two officers, Capt. BORDEN informed Capt. WRIGHT where Gen. WADSWORTH'S body was buried, describing exactly the place of interment. He stated that it was near LONGSTREET'S general hospital, on the Fredericksburgh plank road, about five miles distant from the first day's fight; that a man, by the name of STRIKER, whom Gen. WADSWORTH had befriended in Washington since the beginning of the war, asked, permission of Gen. LEE to bury the body, which was granted, and by order of Gen. LEE a coffin was made of doors, in which the body was placed. Our paroled officers accompanied a train of our wounded to Fredericksburgh. On the 13th inst. a flag of truce, under Capt. MIDDLETON, of the Fifty-seventh New-York, returned to the hospital in the Wilderness for the balance of our wounded left in the enemy's hands. Capt. MIDDLETON, guided by the information received from the rebel Capt. BORDEN, proceeded withia wagon to make search for the body. On the 14th he had found the place of interment, encountering but few rebels, none of whom seemed disposed to molest him on his mission. These are the last advices received from Capt. MIDDLETON through Surgeon MCDERMOTT, who states that there is but little doubt that the body of Gen. WADSWORTH is now in Fredericksburgh or en route for Washington.

Surgeon MCDERMOTT says that the information published as coming from him, concerning LEE'S army, his movements, and the condition of his wounded, was derived from Capt. BORDEN by officers in conversation with him under flag of truce. He makes this correction, because it would be inconsistent with his parole to reveal anything he may have heard or seen within the rebel lines.

THE SEVENTY-NINTH REGIMENT.

Its Return to the City—Its Brilliant History and Heroic Service.

As the sun was going down, one Sunday evening, three years since, the Seventy-ninth New-York (Highland) Regiment, clad in the ancient and picturesque costume of the Scottish Highlanders, passed down Broadway amid the plaudits and farewells of a loyal multitude. They were over a thousand bayonets strong; and there never marched to the field a thousand men braver, prouder, more intelligent and patriotic. Since that 2d of June, 1861, the Seventy-ninth Regiment have done an amount of soldierly service in varied and distant fields and campaigns that seem almost incredible. In Virginia, in South Carolina, in Maryland, in Mississippi, in Tennessee, in Kentucky, and again in Virginia, it has campaigned. It has served under MCDOWELL, MCCLELLAN, POPE and HUNTER; under BURNSIDE in Virginia, and under BURNSIDE in Tennessee. It has served under Brig.-Gen. GRANT, while he commanded at Vicksburgh; under Major-Gen. GRANT while he commanded in Tennessee; and under Lieut.-Gen. GRANT in his late operations in Virginia. It fought at the first Bull Run, at the second Bull Run, at the bloody battles of James Island, at South Mountain and Antietam, at Fredericksburgh, at Vicksburgh and Jackson, at Knoxville and at the Wilderness. These are the great actions in which it has taken part, but the minor though no less perilous fights in which it has been engaged are numerous as the men who at first filled its populous ranks.

It has met with every variety of fortune, and seen every kind of warfare—open field fights, attacks upon fortifications, charges upon artillery, collisions with cavalry, bushwhacking and Indian fighting. It has besieged rebel strongholds, and has in turn withstood a rebel siege. It has been in brave victories, East and West, and has, on frequent fields, seen the tide of battle turn against itself, and against the armies of the Union.

The exact number of men with which the Seventy-ninth left New-York was 1,012. It was an old Scottish militia regiment of this City, and was one of the two or three City militia regiments, which, as an organized body, volunteered for the war under the first impulse of patriotic enthusiasm produced by the rebel assault on Fort Sumter. Their term of enlistment was for two years; but, as there was a dispute with the authorities on this point, the regiment, with true soldierly spirit, agreed to serve out, and fight on for another year. Col. JAMES CAMERON (brother of the then Secretary of War) a gentlemen of large fortune and of American birth, though of strong Scottish feelings and character, was appointed Colonel of the regiment immediately after it reached Washington, and, as will be remembered, fell at the battle of Manassas while heroically leading his men. The distinguished Col. ISAAC I. STEVENS, who fell at the battle of Chantilly, was successor to Col. CAMERON, but he was soon promoted to the rank of Brigadier. Col. FARNSWORTH next assumed command, while the regiment was at Hilton Head, immediately after the capture of Port Royal. This officer left his position on account of ill health, and the command of it was assumed pro tem. by Lieut.-Col. MORRISON. From Port Royal, they returned to the Army of the Potomac, and were with Gen. POPE through his whole campaign. Here Col. FARNSWORTH was wounded and disabled, and the former Colonel (then Brigadier-General) STEVENS, as already mentioned, was killed at Chantilly. It was after several color sergeants had been shot that STEVENS seized the flag, and fell while bearing it aloft. From March, 1862, until the present time, the former Lieutenant-Colonel of the regiment (MORRISON) an able, accomplished, and iron-hearted officer, has been at its head in all its engagements, and has on every occasion acquitted himself with the highest honor. He was wounded in the head at the battle of James Island, in which engagement the regiment lost 117 men, and was again wounded in the Wilderness on the 9th inst. The services of the Seventy ninth in MCCLELLAN'S campaign in Maryland, and in BURNSIDE'S campaign on the Rappahannock, need not here be recapitulated, nor will we more than mention its labors on the Mississippi. Its magnificent defence of Fort Saunders, during LONGSTREET'S desperate assault on the works around Knoxville at the close of last year, in which assault, aided by BENJAMIN'S Battery, it repelled five regiments of rebels, must be fresh in the memories of all. After the raising of the siege of Knoxville, the regiment marched northward through Kentucky and reached Virginia in season to participate in the late battles of the Wilderness.

What remains of this heroic regiment will arrive in this City to-day. The programme is that it will be received at 7 o'clock in the morning by the Caledonian Club, by the Sixty-ninth Regiment, Col. BAGLEY, the Fifty-fifth, Col. LE GAL, and the Twenty-second, Col. ASPINWALL. At 11 o'clock it will be reviewed by the Common Council, and then escorted to dinner at Jefferson Market Drill-room. No honors could be too great for a regiment with such a record as this one.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 17.

RELEASING UNITED STATES PROPERTY FROM ATTACHMENT.

Mr. HAWES, of New-York, (Union,) from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to stipulate for the release from attachment or other process property claimed by the United States, with the following amendments: "Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be considered as recognizing or conceding any right to enforce, by seizure, arrest, attachment or any judicial process, any claim against any property of the United States, or against any property held, owned or employed by the United States by any Department thereof, for any public use, or as waiving any objection to any proceeding instituted to enforce any such claim.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

Mr. HENDERSON, of Missouri, (Union,) submitted the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to communicate to the Senate a statement showing the full amount of the pubic debt of the United States, at the present rates, and that in making said statement, he caused to be arranged separately the several items of said indebtedness, under what law each item accrued, and whether it bears interest, and if so, whether in coin or lawful money, the amount of Treasury notes, United States notes, fractional currency, certificates of indebtedness, temporary loans, &c., and the rate of interest, if any, paid on each of said items, and the date and title of the act under which each was issued.

REPORTS OF BANKING ASSOCIATIONS.

Mr. HENDERSON also submitted the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby directed to communicate to the Senate copies of the full reports of bank associations, corporations and individuals doing banking business, which are required to be made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the act entitled "An Act to Provide Ways and Means for the Support of the Government," approved March 3, 1863; and that, in communicating said report, he be requested to cause those required to be made within sixty days after the first day of October, 1863, and those required to be made six months thereafter, to be arranged in separate tables.

THE SUMMARY INCREASE OF THE TARIFF.

A memorial of the Chamber of Commerce of New-York represents the peculiar hardship of the decision of the Treasury Department, requiring fifty per cent. additional duties to be paid on the day after the passage of the tariff resolution. It says the merchants were active in entering merchandise on Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30, paying into the Treasury one and a half million dollars in gold, which cost a premium of eighty cents, and have the goods on hand yet unsold. They protest against the justice of paying duties for merchandise for which they have received bonding permits. They ask for the passage of a joint resolution exempting from additional duty goods bonded at the time of the passage of the act, and upon all goods which have paid the old duty.

THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY.

The Chair submitted the report of the Central Pacific Railroad Company of California, transmitted to the Senate by Secretary CHASE, which shows that of a capital stock of $1,267 600 there has been $1,060,500 paid in mainly in Sacramento City. The cost of construction and equipment so far has been $1,600,-118.

A GRANT TO CALIFORNIA.

Mr. CONNESS, of California, (Union,) called up the resolution authorizing a grant to the State of California, of the lands embracing the Mariposa or Big Tree Grove. He explained that the trees of this Grove were a wonder of the world, being from thirty to forty feet in diameter, and estimated to be three thousand years old. The design was to preserve the grove as a place of great interest, and for the benefit of mankind.

The resolution was passed.

THE EQUALIZED PAY OF SOLDIERS.

The bill to equalized the pay of soldier in the United Stated army came up as unfinished business, he pending question being on the proposition to raise he grade of Assistant-Judge-Advocate-General to that of Colone of cavalry.

It was agreed to.

Mr. HALL, of New Hampshire (Union) then moved to strike out from the sections to establish a bureau of military justice, the words "rank, pay and emoluments of a Brigadier-General," as applied to the Judge Advocate General, and insert "annual salary of five thousand dollars," and also strike out the "rank, pay and emolument of Major of Cavalry," as applied to the Assistant Judge Advocate General, and insert "the annual salary of thirty-five hundred dollars," which was adopted—yeas 22, nays 12.

The section of the bill was further amended so as to provide that the pay of Paymaster's clerks shall be $1,280 per annum, without rations.

Mr. POWELL, of Kentucky, (Union,) moved to amend so as to provide that the soldiers should be paid an equivalent of the amount proposed in gold. Rejected—6 to 33.

Mr. POWELL moved a proviso that no colored soldiers should enjoy the benefit of the bill, which was rejected.

The bill was then passed, and, as amended, it goes back to the House.

THE PUBLIC PRINTING.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Rhode Island, (Union,) called up the bill to expedite the public printing, and for other purposes as amended. The bill provides among other things, that hereafter instead of furnishing manuscript copies of the documents usually accompanying their annual reports, the heads of departments shall transmit them on or before the first day of November in each year to the Joint Committee of Congress on Public Printing, and that it shall be the duty of that joint committee to appoint some competent person who shall edit and select such portions of the documents placed in their hands as shall in the judgment of the committee be desirable for popular distribution, and to prepare an index to the same.

The amendment that it shall be the duty of the heads of Departments to furnish the Superintendent of Public Printing with copies of their reports on or before the third Monday in November, was adopted.

The Senate, without further action, at half-past four o'clock adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 17.

THE INCREASE OF TARIFF DUTIES.

The Speaker presented the resolutions of the New-York Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the operation of the law increasing the duties on imports fifty per cent. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

THE NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House acted on the report of the Conference Committee on the disagreeing amendments to the Navy Appropriation Bill. Among those agreed to are the following: $75,000 for the completion of the hospital at Mare Island; $15,000 for the purchase of a cemetery for the navy and marine corps near Philadelphia; and providing that out of the appropriation of $750,000 for a floating dry-dock and Navy-yard, approved March 3, 1863, the Secretary of the Navy may construct two dry-docks at New-York and Philadelphia—$260,000 for each—and the Secretary has also discretion to apply the salance of that appropriation to enlarge the Sectional Dry-dock to a capacity to the largest vessels now built.

THE CASE OF COMMODORE WILKES.

On motion of Mr. RICE, of Massachusetts, (Union,) a resolution was adopted calling on the Secretary of the Navy to communicate to the House all the proceedings in the case of Admiral CHARLES WILKES.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION CASES.

Mr. DAWES, of Massachusetts, (Union,) called up the resolutions of the Committee of Elections, declaring that Messrs. SEGAR and CHANDLER are not entitled to seats in this Congress from the First and Second Districts of Virginia.

The two cases being similar, the House considered them together.

Mr. DAWES, of Massachusetts, said that the votes showed that those who voted were but a very small part of the people of the entire districts. In other words, owing to the military occupation, the majority had no opportunity of expressing their wishes at the polls. It could not, in any sense, be considered a fair election. This position had heretofore been sustained by the House.

Mr. SEGAR addressed the House in his own behalf. He alluded to the fact that he was admitted to a seat in 1862, when he had received only 559 votes; but now when he came hither with 1,300, it was sought to keep him from a seat. He claimed that the House in the former case acted upon a just principle, besides the loyal people of his district were entitled to representation here, and there could not be, and ought not to be, an extinction of a State by the exclusion of its Representatives here.

Mr. CHANDLER, of Virginia, contended that both himself and Mr. SEGAR were entitled to their seats by law, expediency, justice and constitutional right. The principle at issue not only affected their respective districts, but every other portion of the country in rebellion.

The House, by a vote of 93 against 23, adopted the resolution that Mr. JOSEPH SEGAR is not entitled to the seat from the First District of Virginia.

It also adopted the resolution declaring that Mr. LUCIUS H. CHANDLER is not entitled to the seat from the Second District of Virginia.

Adjourned.

From Newbern.

A letter from North Carolina states that the enemy are sending all of their available forces from that State to Virginia, and that rebel troops from the South are continually passing over the North Carolina railroads to the relief of Gen. LEE.

Gen. PALMER, who defended Newbern so successfully last February against a formidable attack of the enemy, is now in command of that stronghold. He is an old army officer of accomplished skill and bravery, who enjoys the entire confidence of all the department. If the navy will take care of the rebel rams, Gen. PALMER will take good care of Newbern.

GEN. BUTLER'S ARMY.

my's sharpshooters and compelled to leave the wounded on the battle-field all night.

This morning skirmishing began on the part of the rebels very early, and was for a time quite lively. Presently its cause was fully developed. It was a vigorous demonstration, under cover of which the enemy again fell back, abandoning the whole line of fortifications, and taking another position on a second line of still stronger works, two-thirds of a mile, perhaps, beyond. Our lines promptly followed up this retreat of the enemy, and we now hold the entire length of the first line of works. This brings us within two miles and a half, at most, of the strong fort on Drury's Bluff, known as Fort Darling, which our iron-clads unsuccessfully attacked in 1862, and to within ten miles of Richmond.

This afternoon I rode from one end of our lines to the other. As I passed along the strong line of fortifications which have fallen into our hands, I could only wonder that they had been given up to us so easily. They are irregularly formed, with a deep ditch running along the exterior face, and frequent embrasures for field pieces. The face is frequently broken by bastions, so constructed that from any one an enfilading artillery fire may be brought to bear upon the other, thus having a storming party completely at mercy. Behind these bastions, at some distance, are strong detached works commanding them. Some parts of the line show that the operation of strengthening has been recently carried on, but the larger portion looks to have been constructed for a long time. It is evident, from a casual examination, that the chances for taking such defences by direct assault are very small.

Advancing beyond this line a short distance into the woods, our skirmishers found a strong force of the enemy's pickets, and very sharp firing has been kept up all day. Under direction of Gen. SMITH, our artillery has rained a furious storm of shot and shell upon the rebel works, and our sharpshooters have edged themselves up to within twenty yards of the batteries, picking off the gunners whenever the head of one appears above the parapet. The enemy's artillery, under these circumstances, has been comparatively silent.

The general impression respecting these fortifications is, that they extend from Fort Darling in the shape of a horseshoe, forming the exterior defence of Drury's Bluff. Prisoners say that the formidable line of which we hold possession is the weakest one of three constructed on the same general plan. There can be no question that all the resources of military science have been used in perfecting these fortifications. The rebels, from the work they now occupy, have no difficulty in bringing an enfilading fire upon the line in our possession. Whether they drive us out or we push them further back, seems now to depend mainly upon artillery fighting. Whoever has the best guns will be likely to win. I believe that the respective merits of the opponents in this regard will be tested very soon. If we have to fall back we are yet perfectly safe, and have an excellent base for future operations.

It is reported to-night that Gen. SHERIDAN, with ten thousand cavalry, has arrived opposite Bermuda Hundred, on the north side of the James River. His coming is opportune at this time, as the cavalry connected with the expedition are nearly all absent on raids.

The weather here has been exceedingly disagreeable during the past few days. The rain has fallen almost incessantly, drenching everybody thoroughly, and changing the dust, which used to trouble us, to a pasty and disgusting mud, making locomotion difficult for both men and horses. As we have had seven days' fighting out of the nine that have passed since our occupation, I leave your readers to imagine the discomforts which are added to the ordinary hardships of a soldier's life, by his being compelled to bivouac anele deep in mud, and sleep in very damp clothes. But the rebellion must be put down.

My letter is growing quite long, and I must omit many incidents of the battles which have come under my observation, all showing the courage, endurance and determination of our troops.

We lost a considerable number of men both yesterday and to-day in wounded, and as I met the poor fellows coming in from the skirmish line I collected as many of the names as possible. Some of the wounds are very bad, involving the loss of limbs.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.

ARRIVAL OF THE TRANSPORT FULTON.

Another Steamer Blown Up by a Torpedo.

Fighting Resumed in Charleston Harbor.

THE FLEET ENGAGING THE FORTS.

The United States steam transport Fulton, Worton, Commander, from Port Royal, S. C., May 14, 1864, to Major S. Van Vliet, Quartermaster, arrived at this port yesterday.

Among the passengers were the following foreign officers, who were on a tour of observation to the Department of the South: Marquis de Beaucourt, Colonel Italian Army; Lieut.-Col. G. de Struve, Russian Engineers; Capt. F. Koren, Norwegian Navy; Capt. L. Segelike, Norwegian Engineers.

We are indebted to Purser McManus for his usual courtesies.

When off Charleston Bar, a general engagement was going on between the Union fleet, Admiral Dahlgren, and the rebel forts and batteries on James and Sullivan's Islands. All the monitors appeared to be engaged; also the New Ironsides. Fort Putnam, on Gregg's Point, seemed directing her fire principally on Sumter, which was replied to by Fort Moultrie, on Sullivan's Island, and Battery Simpkins, on James Island. The contest was spirited, and seemed as general as has transpired since last Autumn.

Sunday, May 15, 6:05 A. M., off Frying-pan Shoal, sighted a large side-wheel blockade-runner, evidently bound out from Wilmington. Gave her chase for 5½ hours, and then abandoned it.

The Fulton was detained 11½ hours off Sandy Hook in a dense fog.

OUR HILTON HEAD CORRESPONDENCE

Particulars of the Destruction of the Harriet A. Weed by a Torpedo—Deserters—Change of Commanders—Reconnoissance.

Hilton Head, S. C., Saturday, May 14, 1864.

THE HARRIET A. WEED DESTROYED BY TORPEDOES.

By the arrival of the steamer Boston, from Jacksonville, I learn the particulars concerning the blowing up by torpedoes of the steam-tug Harriet A. Weed, in the St. John's River, at the mouth of Cedar Creek, and twelve miles below Jacksonville. The Harriet A. Weed, having in tow a schooner, left Jacksonville at about 8 o'clock A. M. on Monday, the 9th. When opposite the mouth of Cedar Creek, a point half-way between the town and St. John's Bar, she ran upon two torpedoes, which exploded simultaneously, resulting in the complete destruction of the vessel. She was literally blown to atoms. The following are the names of the lost:

C. L. Bell, Assistant Engineer.

Wm. Harding,	A. Brown.
Thomas Johnson,	Stephen Wilkins.

The following is a list of the saved:

Capt. Gaskill, Commander of the vessel.
Mr. Gaskill, Mate.
D. H. Pettingil, Chief-Engineer.

Capt. J. R. Swift,	Richard Whittaker,
Thomas Collins,	Henry Coldback,
Wm. Morris,	D. Jenkins,
Robert Spagg,	Jacob Nercott,
J. Smith,	Jos. Home,
Frank Collins,	A. Brown, Jr.
Fred. Hamilton,

and twenty soldiers of the Third U. S. Colored Regiment.

Of the saved nearly all are more or less injured. Capt. Swift states that he was thrown into the air a distance of twenty feet. The Harriet A. Weed was used more as a picket-boat than a transport. She carried two guns, both of which were exploded by the concussion. The steamer Boston, also, having in tow a schooner, preceded the Weed but a short distance. The Weed had been built about two years, and at one time was used as a pilot-boat off St. John's Bar.

On the same day that the disaster occurred, the river was dragged, and nine torpedoes were picked up. The authorities had information that the rebels were watching for an opportunity to sink torpedoes, for a number of deserters who came into our lines a few days prior to the explosion, stated explicitly what the intention was with regard to torpedoes. The Harriet A. Weed makes the third vessel that has been destroyed on the St. John's within a few weeks by means of torpedoes. The invasion of Florida by our troops has been fruitful of anything but gratifying events for us. I augur it would be a wise movement to abandon Jacksonville and place the troops where they would be of more service.

DESERTERS.

within the past two or three days, have been coming into our lines by the score. On Thursday night, a party of sixteen were picked up near Fort Pulaski. They stated that an entire company attempted to desert with them. They brought Savannah papers of the 9th and 10th, containing news of the fighting in Virginia. Savannah and Charleston are filled with wounded from Johnston's army. Judging from the tenor of the papers, the rebels are getting a severe thrashing.

EXPEDITIONS

to the various islands in the vicinity of Hilton Head have been recently effected. On the night of the 4th inst. a reconnoissance under the command of Col. Davis, Commandant of the Hilton Head District, was made to Pinckney Island. The troops embarked on board the picket boats Thomas Foulke, Plato and Croton, under the immediate direction of Ensign W. C. Hanford, Superintendent of armed transports. Two launches were also obtained from the navy, and Ensign Chapin and the crew of the lost bark Kingfisher, volunteered their services. Lieut Tracy, of the Vermont, has in command one of the launches. The expedition proceeded up McKey's Creek, a small stream that runs into Scull Creek, and landed on the southern point of Pinckney Island. One of the picket boats made a complete circuit of the island, while the troops marched inland; not a rebel was to be seen on the Island. It was satisfactorily demonstrated that McKey's Creek is entirely free of obstructions, although it had been thought by many that piles had been driven in the deepest part of the stream. The expedition returned to Hilton Head on the following day.

On Monday, the Plato run up Scull Creek and threw a few shells at Chimney Point. No important results were effected.

Three days ago Dawfuskie Island was visited by the picket-boats, and ninety-three bales of cotton were seized and brought away. The rebel pickets fled the island on the approach of the boats.

CHANGE OF COMMANDERS.

Gen. Birney has been succeeded in the command of the Florida District by Gen. Gordon.

Col. Hoyt, of the Fifty-second Pennsylvania, is again in command of Hilton Head Post.

A LARGE MAIL.

The steamer Fulton, on her last trip down, brought 343 bags of mail. The mail consisted of about ninety thousand letters, to say nothing of the newspapers.

PERSONAL.

Lieut.-Col. Hall, formerly Provost-Marshal of the Department, arrived in the Fulton. He will join the Tenth Army Corps in a few days.

Geo. W. Johnson, Esq., editor of the Port Royal New South, and Ralph Trembly, Esq., are among the passengers that go North by the Fulton. WHIT.

Bandages for Wounded Soldiers.—A telegram received by the United States Sanitary Commission, states that the hospitals in Washington are in great need of bandages for the wounded soldiers, and a call is made on the patriotic ladies of the North for their assistance. All packages of old linen and cotton and rolled bandages will be received at the Women's Central Association of Relief, No. 10 Cooper Union, Third-avenue, and by the forwarded to the hospital.

Melancholy Accident.—On Friday last Mr. Gilbert Leonard, President of the Quassaick Bank of Newburgh, fell through the hatchway of a carriage salesroom in Park-place, and striking on his head, fractured his skull, and was otherwise severely injured. He was placed on board the steamer Mary Powell, in charge of Mr. George T. Brown, to be conveyed to his home, but died at 5 o'clock P. M. on the passage. He was an old and respected resident citizen of Newburgh.

An Excellent Remedy.—Whoever is troubled with Hoarseness, Cough, or Soreness of the Throat, can apply an excellent and safe remedy by using BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES. We have tried the article, and can safely recommend them in all cases of Throat Irritation. To Singers and Public Speakers they are of great value.—Alton (Ill.) Courier.

Morton's Gold Pens are now sold at the same prices as before the commencement of the war; this is entirely owing to the Manufacturer's improvements in machinery, his present large Retail Business and Cash-in-Advance System; for, until he commenced advertising, his business was done on Credit and strictly with the Trade.

The Morton Gold Pens are the only ones sold at old prices, as the makers of all other gold pens charge the Premium on the Gold, Government Tax, &c.; but Morton has in no case changed his prices, wholesale or retail.

Of the great numbers sent by mail to all parts of the world during the past few years, not one in a thousand has failed to reach its destination in safetr; showing that the Morton Gold Pen can be obtained by any one, in every part of the world, at the same price, postage only excepted

Reader, you can have an enduring, always ready, and reliable Gold Pen, exactly adapted to your hand and style of writing, which will do your writing vastly cheaper than Steel Pens; and at the present almost universal High-Pressure Price of everything, you can have a Morton Gold Pen cheaper, in proportion to the labor spent upon it and material used, than any other Gold Pen in the World. If you want one, see "The Pen is Mightier than the Sword," in another column.

Obituary.—At a special meeting of the Class of 1857 of Columbia College, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously accepted:

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God in His Wisdom, to remove from this world our College Class-mate and friend, Morgan L. S. Brower; and

Whereas, It is eminently proper that members of a class, united by ties begun in collegiate days and ripened into attachment by associations in after life, should publicly express in an appropriate manner their sorrow at the loss of one beloved by and dear to them all; therefore,

Resolved, That the "Class of '57 of Columbia College," while reverently acknowledging the will and wisdom of their Almighty Father, deeply lament the decease of one of their number, cut down in the prime of youth and with every promise of a noble manhood.

Resolved, That the frankness, sincerity and earnestness of his character, coupled with the many other virtues which he possessed, endeared him to the associates of his college life, and present an additional reason for this expression by them of sorrow and affection.

Resolved, That the members of the "Class of '57 of Columbia College" attend his funeral in a body; that their warmest sympathy be tendered his afflicted family; and that these resolutions be inserted in the public prints and copies sent to his immediate relatives.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.
These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this act shall be BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption, FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. As these Bonds, by act of Congress, are EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.
At the present rate of premium on gold they pay
OVER EIGHT PER CENT. INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.
It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.
These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.
The Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.
It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants o the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.
The authorized amount of this loan is Two Hundred Million Dollars. Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued until March 26, but the amount of Bonds reported sold at the United States Treasury up to May 14 was $48,964,900.
Subscriptions will be received by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, and the Assistant Treasurers at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the

THE CASE OF HUTCHINGS, THE "LIGHTNING CALCULATOR."
There was published in these columns a few days since the remarkable cure of Hutchings, the "Lightning Calculator," so well known to the public during the many years he exhibited his wonderful arithmetical powers at Barnum's Museum, by the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Hutchings is represented to have been at the point of death, and but for the timely interference of the Doctor, would now be resting in his grave. This is a remarkable case, and worthy of the attention of persons similarly afflicted.
We think it is but just to Doctor Von Eisenberg to call public attention to this case. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, who, like the "Lightning Calculator," if not actually praying for death, are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, trifle not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is within his power to make them whole or not.

EARS TO THE DEAF.
Every man, and especially every woman, believes in his or her physician. There are philosophical minds which hold to an abstract faith in Allopathy, or Homeopathy, or Hydropathy, or some other form of scientific cure; but with the world at large the belief is not in the system, but in the doctor. Especially is this true as regards aurists and oculists. The patient who has recovered his sight or his hearing is sure that the blessing could have been restored to him by no other practitioner than that particular one by whom his eyes or ears were opened. Dr. Von Eisenberg is among our best-known aurists. He has not lent us ears as a brother practitioner has eyes, and in whose skill, therefore, we believe above all others. But we hear of him from those who esteem him not merely as a surgeon, but as a benefactor. A recent case has been related to us, for the truthfulness of which we can vouch, though we can name no names. The patient was a lady who had been deaf from infancy, as a consequence of some of the ailments to which children are liable. Latterly the disease had taken an acute form, and the patient was subject to intense suffering. The deafness was rapidly becoming complete, and the general health breaking down under the physical exhaustion attendant upon constant pain. Ordinary remedies and ordinary advice were useless, and Dr. Von Eisenberg was called in. We need not repeat his diagnosis, for that would be only a list of hard names to the general reader. But he detected at sight the seat of disease, first in one portion of the organism, then in another, and with manipulation as skillful as his insight was accurate, he removed the causes, and she who, from infancy, had heard with difficulty, and latterly hardly at all, was restored first to perfect hearing and then to perfect health. Dr. Von Eisenberg's advertisement reminds us of this case, which we thus briefly relate, though not at his solicitation. Let him that hath not ears, hear.

SIGHT RESTORED.
CONCERNING EYES AND OCULISTS.
Of the five senses, that which we call seeing is the most important and most valued. In proportion as this sense fails us, we are reduced to helplessness. If entirely destitute of sight, how slow would be our progress in knowledge, and how limited our sphere of action and usefulness. Endowed with it, the universe becomes a new creation, clothed with beauty and diversified by that infinite variety which never fails to attract the mind and heart.
For several months past this has been a practical subject to us. An inflamed condition of the eyelids communicating itself to the pupil, rendered the discharge of daily duties not only painful, but dangerous. Attributing it to the effect of a cold, we endured it through the Spring, with the hope that with the return of warm weather it would entirely disappear. But in this we were doomed to disappointment. Summer returned, but not our wonted sight. What might have been the result, either of further neglect or of incompetent treatment, we cannot say.
Stating our case to a friend, he assured us that a similar one in his own family had recently been treated with entire success by Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Satisfying ourselves by more particular inquiries that the doctor is no empiric, but a scientific oculist and aurist, we concluded to seek the benefits of his treatment, which we have now reason to acknowledge is very great. Though but a few weeks under his care, the appearance of our eyes has totally changed. The pupil is now full and clear, and the lids are entirely free from inflammation. The doctor says that the optic nerve has been weakened and the retina assumed a chronic, inflammatory state, affecting more or less all the other tissues, and threatening, if neglected, to end in Amaurosis. Opthalmitis, is the term we believe, which oculists apply to eyes affected as were ours. Having obtained the much desired relief, we take great pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to the talent of Dr. Von Eisenberg, and of calling to it the attention of others who may be suffering from a similar or even worse condition of their eyes. It is said that Providence provides an antidote for every bane. It is certain that the eye is, in these times, subject to severer trials than formerly. Let us be thankful, then, that as we increase the tendencies which destroy the organ of vision, the progress of science keeps pace with these tendencies, if not in advance of them.

A NOVEL OF AMERICAN LIFE AND MANNERS.
1 vol., large 12mo. Price $1 50.
An eminent clergyman writes of it:
I have read the book with a great deal of interest and satisfaction. It is marked with ability, culture, thoughtfulness, right-heartedness and good breeding.
☞ OPINIONS OF THE LEADING PRESS. ☜
From the Evening Post, New-York:
The object of the author in the work is to give a picture of American society as it existed before the present rebellion, and to trace out the national indulgences or vices which fostered the seeds of the present conflict. * * The story is well told, and culminates in an exciting dénouement. * Most of the sketches of American social life, people and manners are very truthful and entertaining.
From the Boston Post.
We cordially commend it as an able illustration of the American life and manners it professes to represent. The characters are boldly and skillfully drawn, and the vices and follies of our social and political system are lashed with no sparing hand. The book is destined to exert a marked influence.
From the Albion, New-York.
It is evidently the work of a gentleman of culture. * * The design is artistic. * * * It teaches many truths, and it commands respect by its sincerity of feeling, and its laborious scholarship of style.
From the Saturday Evening Gazette, Boston:
It is far before most publications of the day of like pretension. The characters are admirably drawn, every one to be identified by the delineation, and the whole story, from beginning to end, in plot and execution, most satisfactorily written.

Resolved; That an installment of 20 per cent. upon all stock issued or subscribed for is hereby called, payable at the option of the stockholders, either to John Kerr, Treasurer of the Company, at Leavenworth City, or to Edward Learned, Financial Agent of the Company, at No. 48 Pine-st., New-York, on or before the 20th day of May next, and that the Secretary is hereby directed to cause this notice to be published in two or more papers of general circulation in each of the States of Kansas and Missouri, and also in each of the cities of New-York and Washington.

Resolved, That all authority to any person or party heretofore conferred to act as an agent or representative of this company, or claimed to be possessed by any person or party, is hereby revoked and rescinded, and all agencies or authority hereafter shall only be exercised by persons or parties authorized or recognized by the present or future Board of Directors, and that the Secretary be directed to give public notice of the revocation herein contained. HENRY FOOTE, Secretary.

NOTICE.—TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY EASTERN DIVISION, formerly called the LEAVENWORTH, PAWNEE AND WESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY, and all others whom it may concern: At a meeting of the Stockholders of the above named company, held at Leavenworth on the 4th and 5th days of April inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, By the contract of four parts between this company, John C. Fremont, Ross, Steel & Co., and Edward Learned, approved by this meeting, large and valuable concessions of his interests as a stockholder have been made by said Fremont to promote the speedy construction of the road; and, whereas, it is probable that similar concessions may be agreed to by other stockholders; therefore,

Resolved, That the said Learned, as the financial agent of the company, be authorized and empowered to negotiate with any parties, who are the holders or are interested in the stock of the company, for the transfer and delivery to him, as financial agent of such, and so much of said stock as such parties may be willing so to concede—to be by him used, disposed of or distributed, in like manner and for the same purposes, as is in said agreement provided, with reference to the shares agreed to be transferred to him by said Fremont, and in consideration therefor, the said financial agent is authorized and empowered to mark and indorse upon the certificates of shares which may be retained by such shareholders, severally, or to which they may be entitled upon making any such transfers, that such retained or so entitled shares are full paid and not subject to assessment; provided that such marking or indorsement shall not be made as aforesaid in any case so as to apply or be of effect, as to more shares in this company than shall be equal to one-fourth of the number of shares so transferred to the said financial agent in pursuance hereof by such shareholders respectively, and that over all such marked or indorsed certificates shall be deemed full paid for the number of shares embraced in such indorsements respectively, and the stockholders making the concessions and transfers hereinbefore provided for shall forever after be held by the company free from any payments or liabilities for, or on account of, or in any manner relating to the shares which they shall so severally transfer to said financial agent.

Resolved, further, In case it shall occur that from any cause any of the shares which may be transferred to the financial agent as aforesaid, or in pursuance of the aforesaid contract, shall at any time be found to belong wholly or in part to any other person or party, than the person or party who shall have so transferred the same, the said financial agent shall be and hereby is authorized, to transfer to such person or party, as shall so be found to be the rightful owner thereof, the shares so erroneously transferred to him.

Resolved, That the holders of certificates, obligations, or other memoranda issued in the name or on behalf of the company, which are claimed to entitle such holder to full paid or unassessable shares of the capital stock, be notified by the directors, by public advertisement, or in such other manner as the directors may determine, to present the same, together with any evidences of their right to require such shares to be made full paid or unassessable as aforesaid, to the Executive Committee of the company, in the City of New-York, within sixty days next following the issuing of such notices respectively, in order that all such certificates, obligations, or memoranda may be adjudicated, and proper formal certificates be issued in lieu thereof, in so far as such holders shall be deemed to be entitled thereto, by said Executive Committee. In case any holder shall refuse or omit to present his certificate, obligation, or memoranda, as aforesaid, and for the purposes and within the time aforesaid, or in case any of the evidences furnished as aforesaid shall be deemed by the Executive Committee to be insufficient to entitle the holder to such full paid shares, the officers of the company shall thereafter refuse to recognize or admit any liability of the company to make or issue full paid shares, on account of any such particular certificates, obligations or memoranda, or to treat the same in any manner as full paid shares, except upon the claims of bona fide holders thereof being established by due process of law, or upon competent legal evidence that such claims are obligations on the company, in the event of any irregularity or defective equity in the claim of any holder of any such certificate, obligation or memorandum, the Executive Committee are hereby authorized to adjust the claims of any such holder, in such manner as said committee shall deem equitable, and to cause to be issued in settlement thereof such number of full paid shares as said committee shall so deem to be just and equitable.

Pursuant to the foregoing resolutions, and to directions of the Executive Committee, all persons interested are requested to transmit to the undersigned, at his office, No. 48 Pine-st., in the City of New-York, such statements, propositions and papers as will render the proposed benefits available to them respectively, and secure the same within the time prescribed in the resolution: viz. sixty days from the date hereof.

OFFICE OF THE COMPANY, NO. 8 PINE-ST., N.Y.

This company is organized to work the Thomson and Talbot mines, situated 25½ feet northwest of the "Consolidated Gregory Company's Works," and those of Lee, Judd & Lee, in the Gregory district, midway between the Gregory and Bates lodes, and comprising 900 feet of thoroughly developed and worked property, on the parallel Bledsoe and Louisa lodes, with mill site, building, tools, ores, &c., and also 600 feet of first-class lodes, undeveloped, in the immediate vicinity.

The shafts have been sunk through the cap to the depth of 165 feet, and the abundance and rich quality of the ores fully proved by assay and actual working. Being but fourteen feet apart, the two lodes may be worked together with but little more than the ordinary expense of working one. Reliable estimates and vouchers in the possession of the company, show the capacity of the mines, as now developed, to yield, with the new machinery which the company hope to have in operation by Aug. 1 next, $1,200 per day in gold, which, allowing for estimated expenses, is over ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. UPON THE WHOLE CAPITAL.

While such an estimate, following the fashion of the day, would amply justify a capital of ONE or TWO MILLIONS, yet no such capital being in fact necessary, the company have thought the true interest of the stockholders would best be consulted by fixing the amount of their capital upon the basis of an actual cash requirement, and leaving the dividends to be paid monthly or quarterly, to determine the real value of their stock.

The capital is therefore fixed at $250,000, of which $50,000 is reserved as a working capital. The greater part of the stock is already taken; $100,000, including the working capital, may be subscribed for, ONLY AT PAR, at the office of WHITE, MORRIS & CO., bankers, No. 29 Wall-st., payable one-half ($5 per share) at time of subscribing, balance on the 1st day of June.

The working capital is amply sufficient for stocking the mines with first class machinery, and will be faithfully devoted to that object. An experienced agent, entirely familiar with them, leaves for the mines immediately.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 17.

RETURN OF ESCAPED CONVICTS.

On the arrival at Matanzas, on the 17th ult., of the American bark Templar, from the Tortugas, it was discovered that there were three men concealed in the hold, who gave their names as JOHN WILSON, CHARLES MASON and JAMES MACK, and who proved to be escaped convicts from the United States. The men having been secured in the public jail at Matanzas by the United States Consul there, application for their rendition was made by the United States Vice-Consul General at Havana to the superior authorities of the island. On learning the facts of the case, the Captain General promptly acceded to the Consul's request, and the convicts were promptly placed under a proper guard on board of the United States schooner Nonpareil, and sent to Key West. This transaction, taken in connection with the Arguelle scase, shows to slave-dealers, whether in the United States or Havana, their impending fate.

Vermont State Republican Union Convention.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Tuesday, May 17.

The Republican Union State Convention met here to-day. The attendance was large, and every county in the State was represented. Hon. G. W. GRANDY was chosen President, and Mr. SWAN, Secretary. The following nominations for State officers were read:

For Governor—J. G. SMITH.
For Lieutenant-Governor—Hon. P. DILLINGHAM.
For Treasurer—Hon. JOHN B. PAGE.

The following gentlemen were elected delegates at large to the National Convention: SOLOMON FOOTE, of Rutland; E. P. WALTON, of Montpelier; A. O. HUNTOON, of Bethel, and CHARLES NOYES, of Burlington. Substitutes: J. W. PARK, of Bennington; MOSES KITTREDGE, of St. Johnsburgh; A. STODDARD, of Townsend, and W. C. SMITH, of St. Albans.

A resolution affirming abiding confidence in the sterling honesty and common sense, the sagacity, statesmanship and devoted patriotism of President LINCOLN, and declaring him the first choice of the people of Vermont for the next Presidential term, was unanimously adopted.

The Pirate Alabama.

BOSTON, Tuesday, May 17.

The bark Richard Irvin, arrived at this port from Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, March 27, reports that the pirate Alabama left that port on the 25th of March. Her destination was unknown.

The steamer Kin Kiang, from New-York for Shanghai, arrived there on the 25th, where she would coal, and proceed in a few days.

The bark Urania, from Algoa Bay for New-York, had got a British register, and would sail March 28.

Capt. ANSBURY, of the Richard Irwin, says the Alabama was very much out of repair, her copper being very ragged, and it was surmised that she would go to some port in France for repairs. The people and authorities at the Cape still show a good deal of friendship for SEMMES and his piratical crew. Early information was given him of the approach of American vessels off the harbor. Capt. ANSBURY'S vessel is under the British flag, but this fact did not deter the rebels from threatening to burn her at the first opportunity, in retaliation for his outspoken opinions in regard to their piratical course. The steamer Kin Kiang was coming into the harbor of Cape Town. She passed the pirate Alabama going out.

Another Successful Expedition by Gen. Kautz.

THE DANVILLE RAILROAD CUT.

Gen. Butler Attacked by the Rebels.

A Portion of His Line Lost but Subsequently Recovered.

FAILURE OF GEN. SIGEL'S EXPEDITION.

[OFFICIAL.]

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, May 17, 1864—9 P. M.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

Dispatches from Gen. BUTLER, just received, report the success of his expedition under Gen. KAUTZ to cut the Danville Road and destroy the iron bridge across the Appomattox.

On Monday morning, the enemy in force, under cover of a thick fog, made an attack upon SMITH'S line, and forced it back in some confusion and with considerable loss. But, as soon as the fog lifted, Gen. SMITH reëstablished his lines, and the enemy was driven back to his original lines.

At the same time the enemy made an attack from Petersburgh on Gen. BUTLER'S forces guarding the rear, but were handsomely repulsed.

The troops having been on incessant duty for five days, three of which were in a rain-storm, Gen. BUTLER retired leisurely within his own lines.

We hold the railroad between Petersburgh and Richmond.

Prisoners state that BRAGG and DAVIS were present on the field.

Dispatches from Gen. SIGEL, received this evening, report that on Sunday he fought the forces of ECHOLS and IMBODEN, under BRECKINRIDGE, at Newmarket; that the enemy's forces were superior in number, and that he gradually withdrew from the battle-field and recrossed the Shenandoah, having lost five pieces of artillery, about six hundred killed and wounded and fifty prisoners, but bringing all his train and all the wounded that could be transported from the battle-field. He states that in consequence of the long line and the trains that had to be guarded, he could not bring more than six regiments into the fight, beside the artillery and cavalry, and that the enemy had about 7,000 infantry, besides other arms; that his retrograde movement to Strasburgh was effected in perfect order, without any loss of material or men. He gives no list of casualties, but Lieut.-Col. LINCOLN, of the Thirty-fourth Massachusetts, is reported to be wounded and captured.

No report of any operations by the Army of the Potomac have been received to-day.

A dispatch from Gen. SHERMAN reports his advance upon JOHNSTON as progressing to his satisfaction. His supplies are abundant, and our animals are improving on the grass and grain fields, which now afford good pasture.

METROPOLITAN FAIR.

One Million of Dollars to the Commission.

STATEMENT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

I take the liberty of sending to you for publication in your journal, the following:

At a meeting of the Ladies' Executive Committee of the Metropolitan Fair, held May 13, 1864, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That JOHN H. GOURLIE, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Metropolitan Fair, be requested to place one million dollars in the hands of the United States Sanitary Commission.

(Signed) CATHARINE C. HUNT.

In accordance with the above, I have handed over to GEORGE T. STRONG, Esq., Treasurer of the United States Sanitary Commission, the above-named sum of one million dollars. The following is a copy of his receipt for the same:

New-York, May 17, 1864.

Received from JOHN H. GOURLIE, Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Metropolitan Fair, one million dollars for the benefit of the United States Sanitary Commission.

$1,000,000. (Signed) GEORGE T. STRONG,
Treasurer U. S. S. C.

I take the liberty of stating, for public information, that the above amount is the first installment of the results of the Metropolitan Fair. Its financial affairs cannot be completely closed for some time to come, as contributions known to have been made have not yet reached the Treasury Department; beside, there are other contributions still on their way from Europe, as a cargo of coal, valued at $12,500, the generous gift of GEORGE ELLIOTT, Esq., of Liverpool, and paintings and works of art still unsold, the probable value of which is $20,000.

A detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements will be made as soon as practicable.

I congratulate the public on the noble results of their generous contributions to the Metropolitan Fair.

The receipts, I venture to say, over and above all expenses, will not fall very far short of ($1,100,000) one million one hundred thousand dollars. Still, all sums over one million, at present, can only be roughly estimated.

A committee are now engaged in examining the accounts of the Treasury Department, and I trust their report will be satisfactory to the public.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 FORSYTH-ST., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be peurile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 26th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

NINETEENTH WARD!—FRIENDS OF THE UNION, TO THE RESCUE!—OUR CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT, "HONEST OLD ABE!"—The true friends of President LINCOLN held a preliminary meeting at Cremorne Gardens, corner 72d-st. and 3d-av., on Saturday evening, May 14, 1864, and resolved to support the following ticket at the Union Primary Election, to be held at Dingledein's, 3d-av., between 69th and 70th sts., on WEDNESDAY EVENING, May 18. Every friend of ABRAHAM LINCOLN is earnestly requested to be on hand to secure the triumphant election of this ticket. We make this appeal because it is understood that an insidious attempt is to be made by his enemies to carry the Ward against President LINCOLN by putting up a ticket professedly favorable to his renomination, while its real object is to secure the election of delegates to the Baltimore Convention who will indirectly stab the President in the back by voting for a postponement of the nominations. Prominent among these conspirators in the Nineteenth Ward we may mention the attaches of the United States Assessor's office—men who, viper-like, would sting the hand that feeds them. Their candidate for delegate to the Baltimore Convention is said to be Guy R. Pelton, a man who publicly declared, within a few weeks, that ABRAHAM LINCOLN was totally unfit for the place he occupies. Mr. Pelton, we are assured, has the support of Surveyor Andrews and every pirate in politics on this island. Arrangements are now in progress by these opponents of the President to carry the primary by brute force, well knowing that it is impossible for them to do so by any other means. Roughs from other wards have been hired to be on hand to vote on Wednesday next, and, if need be, knock down our citizens. The friends of the President feel that it is only necessary to warn the people of this scheme to secure its utter defeat by the votes of the honest Union men of the ward.

RECENT TESTIMONIALS.

CATARRH CURED.

FROM REV. FRED. S. JEWELL,

PROFESSOR OF THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, ALBANY, N. Y.

This may certify that I have been, since 1844, subject to violent periodical attacks of catarrh, marked by a highly inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the cavities of the head, producing a most distressing species of headache, for days at a time, wholly incapacitating me from business, and, during the paroxysms, confining me to the bed. In some instances the inflammation has extended to the teeth, occasioning toothache; to the throat, producing hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and twice it has so affected the left eye as to confine me for a month or more to a darkened room. These attacks have been accompanied by strong febrile symptoms; by stoppages of the head, and in the first stages by watery discharges from the nose, and subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and, toward the close of the attack, becoming bloody and purulent. I have tried medicines of almost every kind; external applications to the head, such as camphor, ginger, hot vinegar, snuffs of some half dozen kinds, and other catarrhal preparations, together with internal remedies, such as alteratives, cathartics and emetics. These have produced no change in the occurrence or character of the disease, and, in most cases with little or no temporary relief. I had come, at length, to believe the disease to be practically beyond either cure or material alleviation.

Under these circumstances, I was led, some five months ago, to make a trial of Dr. Lighthill's treatment. His method at once approved itself to my judgment as simple, philosophical, and likely to be effective. Notwithstanding the disadvantages under which he labored in dealing with a disease of such long standing, aggravated by nervous debility and dyspepsia, and constantly induced by the accidents of my professional labor, I found the treatment reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and producing such a modification and alleviation of its character as I had supposed impossible. I chronicle the result thus:

Although I have been situated several times so that I should formerly have believed a severe attack of my catarrh inevitable, I have escaped thus far; the symptoms of threatened attack have been very light, and have yielded to the remedies employed by Dr. Lighthill, without the need of recourse to the old hot fermentations, or emetics, and the discharges from the head have resumed the original and natural condition. That I have been able to obtain so material a relief is to me a cause o gratitude. In that alone I am repaid for whatever the treatment may have cost me.

I make this statement unsolicited, as a means of a knowledging my obligations to Dr. Lighthill's method of treating catarrh, and with a view to aid any who may have suffered from that disease in forming a just opinion of its merits, and its probable utility in their own case.

FREDERICK S. JEWELL.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 14, 1864.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DEAFNESS.

From Rev. Joseph M. Clarke, Rector of St. James' Church.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 20, 1864.

I have been deaf in one ear ever since I was in College, some twenty years ago. By the skill of Dr. Lighthill, its hearing was entirely restored, so that now I hear alike with both ears, and I find that I can use my voice with much more ease and comfort than before.

JOSEPH M. CLARKE.

From the Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

Since I first publicly acknowledged the great benefits which I received from the skillful treatment of Dr. Lighthill, in regard to my hearing, letters of inquiry have incessantly poured upon me from all parts of the country, from parties desiring to learn the particulars of my case, and I am indeed surprised at the number of individuals who are affected similar to the manner in which I have been, and, therefore, feel it more and more a sacred duty which I owe to these sufferers, to direct them to a proper and reliable source to obtain the benefit they so much covet, and which so many afflicted ones have hitherto sought in vain, just as I had done previous to applying to Dr. Lighthill.

I had from infancy one very deaf ear, which always discharged more or less offensive matter, and was the source of the greatest annoyance and discomfort to me. Last year the other ear also became diseased, and both ears discharged a yellow matter, very profuse and highly offensive. My hearing became very much impaired, and the discharge produced the greatest debility of body and depression of spirits. I applied to my family physician and other practitioners, without deriving any benefit, and almost despaired of being restored to health, when, providentially, I applied to Dr. Lighthill. Under his treatment my ears began to improve at once, and continued to do so until, in a comparatively short time, both ears were healed, the discharge removed, and my hearing restored. At first I feared the cure would not be permanent, or that the stoppage of a discharge of so long standing might prove detrimental to my general health—a fear which I find a great many entertain in regard to the removal of discharge from the ear. My experience, however, has proved conclusively that my apprehensions were entirely groundless in both respects, for both ears are as well, and my hearing is as good at present, as the day I left off treatment, and the stoppage of discharge, instead of proving detrimental to my health, has given the highest elasticity and vigor to my body, and a flow of spirits not experienced for a long time previous.

I wish that the above might serve as a general answer to the interested, but should one or the other desire to apply to me personally, or by letter, I will cheerfully satisfy reasonable demands upon my time.

I avail myself of this opportunity of again publicly expressing my deeply-felt gratitude to Dr. Lighthill, whom I esteem as a gentleman and a man of science, in whom the highest confidence may be placed. JOHN NOTT.

References to parties of the highest respectability residing in the City, who have been cured of Deafness, Catarrh, &c., may be had on application.

CONSTITUTION

LIFE SYRUP,

COMPOSED OF

IODIDE POTASSIUM,

with the Compound Concentrated Fluid Extract of

VALUABLE MEDICINAL

ROOTS AND HERBS,

PREPARED BY WM. H. GREGG, M. D.,

Graduate College of Physicians and Surgeons, N. Y., formerly Assistant Physician Blackwell's Island Hospitals, late Medical Inspector New-York State Volunteer Depots, under Gov. Edwin D. Morgan.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

HAS PRODUCED

A REVOLUTION IN MEDICINE!

What may seem almost incredible, is, that many diseases hitherto considered hopelessly incurable, are frequently cured in a few days or weeks, and we cheerfully invite the investigations of the liberal-minded and scientific to cures which have no parallel at the present day.

Our medicine is peculiar; by it the seat of any disease is directly reached, and the equilibrium restored.

Those who have suffered long from painful and obstinate diseases,

Those who have vainly sought relief from advertised medicines,

Those who cannot be cured by other physicians—

ARE INVITED TO USE CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP.

During the past five years we have contended with obstacles and overcome opposition as herculean as were ever encountered by any reformers.

RAPIDITY OF CURE.

Some say, "Your cures are too quick," while others doubt their permanence, and think that diseases can only be cured by the "slow recuperative process of Nature."

This is our reply:

In health, the body, like a well-balanced scale, is in a state of equilibrium. But when from any cause down goes one side of the scale, we have the effects of disease. What is requisite is, to restore the normal balance of the scale.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP,

a positive and specific remedy for all diseases originally from an IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, and for all (hereditary) DISEASES transmitted from PARENT TO CHILD.

PARALYSIS.

HEMIPLEGIA. PARESIS. PARAPLEGIA. PARALYSIS AGITANS.

It is so universally admitted that Constitution Life Syrup is the only effective means of restoration in the various forms of Paralysis, that we need not reiterate that it is emphatically the Great Life-giving Power.

DYSPEPSIA.

INDIGESTION. LIVER COMPLAINT. CONSTIPATION.
WEIGHT AT STOMACH. BILIOUSNESS. WANT OF APPE
FLATULENCE. BAD BREATH. PETITE.

SCROFULA.

STRUMA, GLANDULAR SWELLINGS, ULCERATION,
KING'S EVIL, ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHEUM.

This taint (HEREDITARY and ACQUIRED), filling life with untold misery, is by all usual medical remedies incurable.

RHEUMATISM.

[ARTHRITIS.] NEURALGIA. TIC DOULOUREUX.
LUMBAGO. SCIATICA. GOUT.

If there is any disease in which the Constitution Life Syrup is a sovereign, it is in Rheumatism and its kindred affections. The most intense pains are almost instantly alleviated—enormous swellings are reduced. Cases, chronic or vicarious, of 20 or 30 years' standing, have been cured by us.

NERVOUSNESS.

NERVOUS DEBILITY, SHATTERED NERVES,
LOSS OF POWER. CONFUSION OF THOUGHTS.
ST. VITUS' DANCE. EPILEPSY.

Thousands who have suffered for years will bless the day on which they read these lines. Particularly to weak, suffering woman will this medicine prove an inestimable blessing—directing their footsteps to a Hope which fulfills more than it promises.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.

SALIVATION. ROTTING OF BONES.
BAD COMPLEXION. ACHES IN BONES.
FEELING OF WEARINESS. DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP purges the system entirely from all the evil effects of MERCURY, removing the Bad Breath, and curing the Weak Joints and Rheumatic Pains which the use of Calomel is sure to produce. It hardens Spongy Gums and secures the Teeth as firmly as ever.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

eradicates, root and branch, all Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, like

ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,

and all other difficulties of this kind, which so much disfigure the outward appearance of both males and females, often making them a disgusting object to themselves and their friends.

CONSTITUTION LIFE SYRUP

either of the Face, Neck, or Female Breast, and should be taken as soon as the swelling is detected, thus preventing their breaking, and producing troublesome Discharging Sores, which disfigure so many of the younger portion of the community, from six to twenty years of age. Young children are very subject to Discharges from the Ears, which depends upon a Scrofulous constitution. These cases soon recover by taking a few doses of the Life Syrup.

All scrofulous persons suffering from general Debility, Emaciation, Dyspepsia and Dropsy of the limbs, abdomen, and in the female, Dropsy of the ovaries and womb, generally accompanied with Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, are permanently cured by Constitution Life Syrup. The disease known as Goitre or Swelled Neck, the Life Syrup will remove entirely. The remedy should be taken for some time, as the disease is exceedingly chronic and stubborn, and will not be removed without extra effort.

Tumors of the Ovaries, Tumors of the Breast, and swelling of other glands
